We have already listened Michelle's great voice in Nox Arcana's "Winter's Knight" album, and now we have here a solo album from this great singer. The music on this album has been composed by the Nox Arcana guys so we know that here we have great quality assured. And also it is assured that we have a melancholic feeling in all the compositions. Contrasting with Nox Arcana's music here we have more emphasis on Michelle's beautiful voice that delivers on each tune sad melodies full of arcane feelings. It is amazing how good this woman's voice fits the overall feeling of this enchanting compositions. Dead Can Dance, Loreena McKennitt, Kari Rueslatten come to mind showing that Michelle is an extremely talented singer. One of the most climatic albums of the year.
